

Welcome to the JOINT ILL-ESRF LIBRARY

The Joint ILL-ESRF Library is a scientific library open to the two institutes and their scientific visitors.

Books are referenced by topic (eg., physics, mathematics and computer science...) and can be borrowed for one month.

Several printed scientific journals and thesis can also be consulted.

Our database (Flora) is composed of resources such as electronic journals, a selection of e-books, publications of each institute and books. The complete catalogue is available via the library's web page.

It is also possible to order books or articles not available on site.

Suggestions to purchase scientific or technical books are welcome.
